

Essentiality Certificate Issuing Process at DGH

- Essentiality Certificate issued by DGH is as per Notification No 12/2012-Cus dated -17/03/2012 and further amendments from time to time, S No 357 & 357A for custom duty free import of material required for petroleum operations.
- DSF round operators have to apply in sub section “Marginal Field” , which is S No. 357A(d).

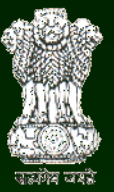

- Operator can take materials from other operators in India by obtaining NOC from DGH.
- For indigenous purchase PAC is issued as per notification no. 12/2012-CE , s no 336.

DGH The Process

- Operator applies for Authorized signatory.
- Authorized signatory is approved at DGH.
- Authorized signatory then applies EC online in ECMS system.
- Uploads all the relevant documents in the system.
- Authorized signatory signs all the documents and submit hard copy at DGH.

DGH The Process.....Cont.

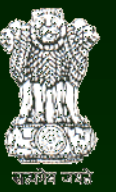

- EC application is processed at DGH by Nodal officer, Technical officer and then by EC officer.
- If found in order IA (Issuing Authority) issues the certificate in case of goods value less than or equal to 2 cr.
- DG makes the Final Approval in case of goods value greater than 2 crores and returns back to IA. IA (Issuing Authority) issues the certificate.

DGH The Certificate

- The certificate issued by DGH is submitted at customs while filing Bill of Entry for getting waiver of custom duty as per notification.
- and
- The PAC certificate issued by DGH is submitted to excise for getting excise duty waiver as per notification.

Questions

?

Thank You